What was your opinion of this year's season?

There were 3 or 4 games in the season that were a disappointment but all together it was a good season. --Kevin J. Smith

Through all the hard times we faced this season it was great to come together and win sectionals.

-Cole W. Hewitt

The season was great! Winning Sectional 25 was a great way to end our senior year of football.

Community Service and their deeds.

The Community Service club, is pretty self explanatory...they do community service! Their biggest part in the community this year was the blood drive that they put on for the school. President Kate Greene worked vigourously to get the blood drive to the school. Once that was accomplished, a goal of 60 pints was needed by any student who was able and willing to give their blood. Many students wanted to participate, and because of their willingness to give blood they reached and passed the goal of 60 pints.

The Ladies of the Tower

The Ladies of the Tower tells the story of six women, now ghosts, who each in turn tell their tragic stories of how they came to be locked up in the Tower of London. All are famous women of royal blood with the exception of one, who is called the "unknown woman", because no one, including herself, knows who she is. They are unseen but felt by the cleaning ladies, who in the end help them discover that if they do not let the past go, they will continue to be locked in the horrible Tower forever.

The cast of The Ladies of the Tower all listen attentively while Jenna Robinson recites her story of being locked in the tower.

Werewolf?

A misguided man attempts to cop with his latent urges to become a werewolf. In order to get his head straight on the issue he seeks help from a psychiatrist. In one long and painful visit, the two dredge up bad memories of his mother and wife. The audience sees his real life story, while the man attempts to convince his psychiatrist that he is really a very tough and scary man.

John Wilson and Dusty Harmon discuss Dusty's "werewolf" that, according to him, is lurking inside of him, waiting to break free.

RCHS Drama

Swingtime Canteen

Swingtime Canteen is a musical that takes place during World War II. Five patriotic and supportive women are touring—singing and entertaining people during this hard time. In London they also have a chance to be on the radio, but it turns out that their first chance was to be their last. The women don't give up though, and they give the best show of their lives!

Above: Lilly McBain is an ambitious and gorgeous survivor who is cynical in order to mask her true self. She was played by Kendal Walker and is shown singing, "Daddy".

Above: Jo Sterling is a good-natured person and everyone's best friend. She was played by Abby Jo Snyder, who is singing her number, "Love Isn't Born, It's Made".

Below: Topeka Abotelli is a very outspoken woman who has a young boy. She was played by Ashley Burdett and is shown singing "His Rocking Horse Ran Away".

Marian Ames is the one who gathered up the all-girl band to perform for the troops. She is played by Jennifer Fellmy. She is shown singing "Don't Fence Me In."

Where'd My Date Go?

(right) Adam Benner and Ashley Bohannon seem to be looking for their dates. Uh...didn't you two go together?

"Although the grilling out before hand and staying at Pettel's was fun, the best part was how my Jamie and I looked. The announcement of the prom royalties by Dr. Habrowski was a very close second. The actual dance was also the best ever with all the people and the singing to Mindy was very comical. All in all it was the best prom EVER!"

--John Mrozinski

"My senior prom was great but the best part was sumo wrestling at the after Prom."

--Tiffany Inskeep
